W.P.No.10065 of 2007

Oral Order: (Per Honourable Sri Justice P.Swaroop Reddy)

This writ petition is filed by the petitioner alleging that he fell in love with Sneha d/o Tirumala Rao and married her. Thereafter, as the whereabouts of Sneha are not known, he sought for a writ of Habeas Corpus.

In fact, in para-7 of the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition he has stated that the respondents are trying to take back Sneha; but, now states that the respondents have already taken her away. Counter reveals that he already handed over Sneha to her parents, which position is not disputed by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

As per the directions of this Court, today, police produced Sneha before the Court along with her parents. She was examined in camera, separately, in the presence of her parents and also in the presence of the petitioner. She has expressed her willingness to live with her parents only. She has not disputed the fact that she married the petitioner at Yadagirigutta.

In view of the fact that Sneha desires to live with her parents, it is directed that she shall be allowed to live with her parents.

In these circumstances, as Sneha has expressed her willingness to live with her parents, there are no grounds to pass any orders in this petition.

Writ petition is accordingly dismissed.
